Biography

Darrell Russ is a passionate, soulful male singer and songwriter based in the Baltimore-Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area. Versatile in styles ranging from Disco and Soul to Country and R&B, Darrell captivates audiences with his high-energy stage performance and deep, soulful singing that connects with the crowd.

After years of honing his craft in clubs and talent showcases, Darrell completed "Don't Remember Me," a 3 song EP released in March of 2006. It featured some of his finest recordings produced by some of today's best producers and was supported by a number of performances, press releases and radio appearances. He is currently in the studio recording his full-length solo debut album that will feature all new material. Upon release in the fall of 2007, the new album will be accompanied by a promotional campaign that includes performances at parties, clubs and festivals as well as radio stations.

Darrell was the featured soloist performer for the regional smash hit television show "Curtain Call," which is broadcast in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. See his Performance Highlights for an extensive list of impressive performances.

DarrellRuss.com and Myspace.com/DarrellRussMusic will be launched in January of 2007 and will be the centerpiece of Darrell's promotion. Featuring glossy pictures, mp3s of his new singles, events information and a press kit, the Web sites will be fun and interactive ways to learn more about Darrell Russ.
